

Guidelines for Artists displaying at Westside Players

- Artist may just display his/her work or try to sell his/her work.
- If artist is selling his/her work, tax must be included and Westside earns 10%, so price pieces accordingly.
- The artist must hang his/her own art and price cards sometime before the dress rehearsal and take his/her own art down the week after the show closes. Days/times must be arranged with a Westside Players Board Member or the Director.
- The artist must provide a brief bio for publicity.
- There is an artists' reception opening night at 6pm.
- The artist will receive a check in the mail for any work sold.
- The artist is entitled to one complimentary ticket to the show. The ticket can be used for one dinner and show ticket or two show-only tickets. You must call the Raven's Nest at 232-2232 to make a reservation for the night you want to attend the show.
